PART TWO : EVALUATION OF THE COMPETENCE

TASK 1: Reading comprehension (5 Marks)

Read the text below and answer the questions that follow-

A respected and prosperous warrior of the Umofia clan in Nigeria, Okonkwo is inspired to be a great provider for his own father's laziness. The story traces Okonkwo's fall from a respected leadership position through a series of poor decisions. Although he repents, these events tarnish Okonkwo's name amongst the people in his community resulting in his exile.

Upon his return several years later, he finds his village overrun with Christian missionaries who intend to colonize and convert the Igbo people, destroying their cultures and customs in the process. Okonkwo's realization that the Igbo cannot and will not fight the white men results in his tragic suicide.
