

FIRST SEQUENCE EXAMINATION

CITIZENSHIP FORM ONE

Time : 2 hours

SECTION A: Put an X on the letter of the correct answer (A,B,C,D).

1. A citizen can have all the following descriptions except:

- A) A person who visits a foreign country and gives up all his rights in his country.
- B) A person who votes during elections in his country
- C) A person who is elected as a mayor in his country.
- D) A person who is employed as a civil servant in his country

2. A person can use all the following channel to obtain citizenship in Cameroon except:

- A) Birth B) Double nationality C) Marriage D) Descent

3. The nuclear family has all the following members except:

- A) Father B) Mother C) Cousin D) Child

4. All the following countries experience the extended family system in their laws except:

- A) Ghana B) Nigeria C) Gabon D) France

5. The main difference between the nuclear family and the extended family is:

- A) The existence of parents
- B) The number of members
- C) The existence of grand children
- D) The number of children

SECTION B: Structural Questions (2MKS each)

1. Who is a citizen?
2. Define citizenship education
3. State two types of citizens
4. Give two importance of citizenship education
5. Define a family
6. State four types of family
7. Give two characteristics of the family.