Section B: Comprehension

Read the following text and answer the questions which follow in complete sentences.

Text:

Homosexuality is a sexual activity between individuals of the same sex. Both men and women can be considered homosexuals. Female homosexuals are referred to as Lesbians while male homosexuals are called gays.

It seems that some homosexual behavior results from either occult malpractices or from the lack of the opposite sex. For instance, a person who spends long periods separated from the opposite sex may turn to members of his or her own sex for sexual gratification. Such situations are very common in prisons.

Whatever the case, the truth is that, today, society is depraving at an alarming rate. No doubt, we are moving from fry pan to fire. One does not need a pair of glasses to see that some people are no longer able to distinguish left from right. To some extent, it will not be a hyperbole to assert that animals are becoming more civilized, more dignified, than human beings. In the name of freedom and liberty, human rights and emancipation, homosexuality which is the sexual perversion that brings two people of the same gender to have sex, is increasingly gaining grounds and being imposed by the 'Haves' to the 'have-less'.
