SECTION C: READING COMPREHENSION (10 marks)

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions below it.

Citizenship is a sacred honour, a plaque we carry proudly on our shoulders and a burden pressing hand on our backs. A citizen is a member of a country. He/ she has the right to ask for protection, the duty to protect their country and obey its laws. In other words, citizenship is the relationship between an individual and a state in which the individual belongs and owes allegiance.

Fortunately, being a good citizen doesn't stop at the exchange of rights and duties, it requires a lot of civilized behaviour and responsible acts. The love for your country also known as patriotism always pushes loyal citizens to respect their environment and other people.

All members of our community from the youngest to the eldest have to cooperate. By cooperating, I don't mean giving huge efforts. Simple acts and easy behaviour can help us ameliorate our level of life. As citizens, and students in particular, all we have to do include the steps below:

- Start with your own home, clean it regularly, and take care of your front door area.
- Be a good neighbour by caring about others.
- Respect your neighbours, help them if necessary and act politely.
- Do not litter or throw trash on the street, or anywhere on the campus.
- Let's try to walk wisely, on the pavement because it causes fewer difficulties to drivers in the city.
- Respect your school, especially its doors, walls and windows. They are not yours. You only borrow them for a year or more.
- Being a citizen is a source of pride. Don't try to ignore your origin in front of foreigners. Have you ever seen any of them deny being who they are?
- Living together in peace and tolerance with people of diverse religious and ethnic backgrounds is a sign of good citizenship.
- If you can study about your country, it would be great. See the extreme diversity you have (the deserts, seas and other water bodies, mountains, different dialects, traditions, cultures and traditional clothes, songs and festivals).

When you become a parent, teach this to your children. Citizenship starts from childhood, and only ends by the time you die. It is only by really practising those simple acts that our daily lives can get better. I hope this will help us understand another meaning of good citizenship.
