During wars the Red Cross play an important part. They send supplies to both sides. The Red Cross are not interested in the causes of wars, or in who is right or wrong. Their only aim is to help those who are wounded or sick. That is why, during a war, they send help to both sides.

Hurricanes are strong winds which destroy houses and bring down trees. Red Cross groups from many countries offer tents and blankets, food and medicine to the homeless survivors. Sometime there are earthquakes which destroys people's homes. The Red Cross sends workers and supplies to help. Sometimes the rain fail for several years and people in the dry regions begin to die of hunger and famine. Then the Red Cross will send people to set up feeding centers. At other times the problem is just the opposite; -too much water –a country or part of the country may suffer from floods, and the people's crops are destroyed. They are glad to receive Red Cross workers who are can give them food until their crops have grown again. Every year this great organization helps thousands of unhappy people all over the World.

SECTION D: Writing (10 marks)

Topic 1: Describe the town that you like most in Cameroon.

Sample Answer:

The town I like most in Cameroon is Limbe. It is located in the South-West region of the country, near the Atlantic Ocean. Limbe is known for its beautiful beaches, such as Down Beach and Limbe Wildlife Centre, where you can see various animals like gorillas and chimpanzees. The town is also famous for its botanical gardens, which are a great place for relaxation and learning about plants.

The main activities in Limbe include fishing, tourism, and agriculture. Many people visit Limbe to enjoy its natural beauty and the warm hospitality of its people. The hygienic conditions in Limbe are generally good, with clean streets and well-maintained public spaces. I admire Limbe because of its peaceful environment, rich culture, and the opportunity it offers to connect with nature.

Topic 2: Write a letter to your brother about emergency services and volunteering.

Sample Answer:

Epossi Rita
GHS Ntinkeu
PO Box 22
Menoua, Cameroon

Dear Brother,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to tell you more about emergency services and the importance of volunteering. In our village, many people may not be aware of how emergency services work, so I want to share some information with you.

There are several organizations that provide emergency assistance, such as the Red Cross, Médecins Sans Frontières, and UNICEF. These organizations help people in times of crisis, such as during wars, natural disasters, and famines.

There are three types of people who often need emergency assistance:

1. Victims of natural disasters (e.g., earthquakes, floods).
2. People affected by wars (e.g., wounded soldiers, displaced families).
3. Those suffering from famine or disease (e.g., malnourished children, sick individuals).

It is important to voluntarily assist victims of any catastrophe for several reasons:

1. Saving lives: Volunteers can provide immediate help to those in need.
2. Reducing suffering: By offering support, we can help people recover faster.
3. Promoting solidarity: Volunteering brings communities together and fosters a sense of unity.

I hope this information is helpful. Please share it with others in the village so that everyone can understand the importance of emergency services and volunteering.

Yours sincerely,
Epossi Rita
