Examination Paper Correction

III. Give the correct forms of the words in brackets in the following sentences:

1. Let us practice simplicity in life and everything becomes simple.
This way, we simplify our lives.
Explanation: The word "simply" needs to be transformed into "simplicity" (noun), "simple" (adjective), and "simplify" (verb) to fit the context of the sentence.
2. Try to ignore certain things that people do to you even if they say you are ignorant. Ignorance is not a crime.
Explanation: The word "ignorantly" needs to be transformed into "ignore" (verb), "ignorant" (adjective), and "ignorance" (noun) to fit the context of the sentence.
3. Parents always advise children never to be lazy. Laziness does not pay in any way, so they should not do things lazily.
Explanation: The phrase "to laze" needs to be transformed into "lazy" (adjective), "laziness" (noun), and "lazily" (adverb) to fit the context of the sentence.
4. We always talk to people sympathetically when they have problems.
Explanation: The word "sympathy" needs to be transformed into "sympathetically" (adverb) to fit the context of the sentence.
