SECTION 3 / READING COMPREHENSION/ 10 MARKS

Read the following text carefully and answer the questions that follow it correctly.

Multicultural societies are made up of people of different cultures. A similar word is diversity, which means including and respecting the differences between people. These differences can include race, gender, sexual orientation, religion, background, socioeconomic status, and much more.

Respecting cultural diversity means so appreciate and learn from differences; and to celebrate and build on similarities. Each of us was born into a society with a specific culture. which is the foundation of our beliefs, values, knowledge and rituals.

It is important to respect cultural diversity because our country, workplaces and schools consist of various cultural, racial and ethnic groups. Respect means opening up to other cultures. We need to step into the shoes of other cultures. As we interact with others, we can build bridges of trust, respect and understanding across culture.

QUESTIONS
