

Collège F. X. Vogt		Année scolaire 2022/ 2023
English Department	EVALUATION	25 th October, 2023
ENGLISH LITERATURE
Level : PA      Duration : 1hr

Name .....Class.....

Answer all questions

Part One: Evaluation of Resources

I. Complete the following sentences with correct words of your own.

- 1) The first part of a literature book is always the.....
- 2) The people who play different roles in the book are the.....
- 3) The principal idea that runs through the book is the.....
- 4) .....constitutes the new words and expressions that we learn from a book
- 5) Marriage is a very.....issue so we don't have to play with it.
- 6) Our.....are our family members who lived a long time ago and many of them are no more.
- 7) In our African culture, the man's family must pay the..... to the girl's family before marriage can take place
- 8) My.....is the husband of my sister
- 9) You must receive the.....from the two families for your marriage to work
- 10) One of the characteristics of traditional marriage is that it is .....

II. Match the following sentences that go together. Copy your answer on the spaces provided.

I	II
a) How could they get married	i. to pass through a period of courtship?
b) Have you seen the girl	ii. to carry out the ceremony?
c) Do you think it is important	iii. to obtain the accord of the two families
d) Where do they intend	iv. without going through the different stages?
e) How necessary is it	v. that he intends to get married to?

1. ....
2. ....
3. ....
4. ....
5. ....

III. Give the correct forms of the words in brackets in the following sentences

- 1) It is.....important for your parents to be informed of your marriage intentions. This .....exists especially in Africa (particular)
- 2) Some young people are really.....of their traditions. It is not good and that is why they.....do things that lead them into trouble. ....is not a good thing (ignore)
- 3) We have to.....look for solutions to our problems (courage)
- 4) I am going to a .....ceremony ; my uncle is getting..... today (to marry)
- 5) Has he.....the bride price already ? The..... is made in the village. I hope he knows that (pay)

IV. Fill the blank spaces with the correct words from the list.

Hyperbole – paradox – bridegroom – pour – bestman

- 1) In the African tradition, before drinking wine or whiskey, we have to .....some on the ground
- 2) That is a real..... ; the man bought the medicine to treat his sickness and it instead killed him
- 3) What a ..... ;how can you say that you have given me money one million times ?
- 4) My nephew is getting married today so he is a..... ; his .....will be my second cousin.

Examination Paper Correction

Part One: Evaluation of Resources

I. Complete the following sentences with correct words of your own.

1. The first part of a literature book is always the introduction.
2. The people who play different roles in the book are the characters.
3. The principal idea that runs through the book is the theme.
4. Vocabulary constitutes the new words and expressions that we learn from a book.
5. Marriage is a very serious issue so we don't have to play with it.
6. Our ancestors are our family members who lived a long time ago and many of them are no more.
7. In our African culture, the man's family must pay the dowry to the girl's family before marriage can take place.
8. My brother-in-law is the husband of my sister.
9. You must receive the blessing from the two families for your marriage to work.
10. One of the characteristics of traditional marriage is that it is sacred.

II. Match the following sentences that go together.

I	II
a) How could they get married	iv. without going through the different stages?
b) Have you seen the girl	v. that he intends to get married to?
c) Do you think it is important	i. to pass through a period of courtship?
d) Where do they intend	ii. to carry out the ceremony?
e) How necessary is it	iii. to obtain the accord of the two families?

III. Give the correct forms of the words in brackets in the following sentences.

1. It is particularly important for your parents to be informed of your marriage intentions. This particularity exists especially in Africa.
2. Some young people are really ignorant of their traditions. It is not good and that is why they ignorantly do things that lead them into trouble. Ignorance is not a good thing.
3. We have to courageously look for solutions to our problems.
4. I am going to a marriage ceremony; my uncle is getting married today.
5. Has he paid the bride price already? The payment is made in the village. I hope he knows that.

IV. Fill the blank spaces with the correct words from the list.

1. In the African tradition, before drinking wine or whiskey, we have to pour some on the ground.
2. That is a real paradox; the man bought the medicine to treat his sickness and it instead killed him.
3. What a hyperbole! How can you say that you have given me money one million times?
4. My nephew is getting married today so he is a bridegroom; his bestman will be my second cousin.