Instruction: Study the poem below and answer the questions that follow.

Our ways

Are you not an african?

Or are you on foreign land?

Do not shy from all odds

And take refuge in the lord's.

Are you not a Cameroonian?

Then it would be quite unkind

Like dogs welcoming their masters,

They smile but ignore matters

Then timely wait to grease their palms

Then matters will move without qualms.

Our ways, O! Our rugged ways
Our corrupt lanes
Our joys and falls
Should we leave or love them?
