My name is Kevine, I am 22 years old. When I was in primary school, we used to organise fashion parade with my teacher and friends every Friday. My teacher always told me I have the height of a mannequin so he chose me to complete with other classes. By that time I was still very shy, consequently I could not express all my talents. My teacher wasn't tired of encouraging me. I had my exam and entered secon dary school. There I realized that this activity was really put at the front stage, especially during youth weeks. Being only in Form 1 and very young, I had to compete with bigger students without any fear : my primary school teacher had given me enough motivation. We went to train every week and I was taken for the finals.

That day I was stressed up to the extend of almost renouncing but I believed in myself, we had to showccase in three runs ; traditional, beach and evening attires. My family was there to encourage me. After our three parades, the jury gave the result and I was the third. Eventhough I didn't win, I was not discouraged. I continued with my studies very well till the class of upper sixth where I postulated to become the mis of my school. This time I was the second. I was disappointed but still very motivated. I decided to continue training myself while waiting for another opportunity to present. I can say fashion parade is my hobby because I can't do something else apart from it during my leisure time.

Some weeks ago, I received a call from a very big production house in France where I was asked to begina career as « mannequin internationale ».

couldn't believe, I thought I was dreaming ! So all my efforts were seen ? I wondered who told them about me ? It's certainly on my facebook page since I usually poste some videos of me showcasing. Oh Godis great.

I've been at the delegation of national security to have a passport and at the embassy of France to obtain my visa. I had these documents with no delay, since I was traveling on invitation. This evening, at 7pm I will be taking my first flight, thanks to my leisure activity. All I wish to tell you is to never give up. My father, my mother , brothers and freinds are proud of me and I won't stop working in order not to disappoint them
