SECTION C: reading comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Human rights play a role in everyone's life, but not everyone realize it. It evolves in any comment you make that include someone different. Everything near discriminatory joke you say. It affects people, even if it doesn't affect you. Human rights means being able to hold hands with the person you love, work where you are qualified to work without your skin colour or sexual orientation being the reason you can't, it means having the right to be human making choices and mistakes. Every day, I hear comments about that this being "gay" and other comments about that being "retarded". There are an estimated 1019729 words in English language. What I don't understand is why these words are chosen to describe something meagre or something that lacks quality.

Society has gotten to a point, where people think, it doesn't matter what they say, that they think their comments and hate don't affect other people. Humans are often hurtful towards each other, but I believe we all were born with the innate of compassion and love. These days, I see parents showing their
